

PRIVACY NOTICE.

This privacy notice is a declaration of how Linlithgow Angling Club applies the Data Protection Principles and Rights afforded by the General Data Protection Register to the data provided by our members.

We retain the information supplied by each member on their Annual Application form ie Name, address, phone numbers, e-mail details and membership category. We confirm that we hold no financial details on any members.

This information is held by the Secretary, with copies of issued to the Club President and other senior committee members to assist with the running of the Club. Data is destroyed after SIX years by deleting all electronic records. Hardcopies are shredded.

This information is not disseminated to any parties outwith the Club committee. Please contact the Secretary on secretary_lac@yahoo.co.uk if you wish to obtain sight of the information held on an individual member.

The information is held to allow us to contact members regarding annual renewals and subscriptions, and to disseminate information about general Club News and business.

If you wish to lodge a concern or if you are unhappy with our response, you have the right to complain to the Supervisory Authority:-

Information Commissioner's Office, <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>